POPULAR CON-DUCTOR DIES

On Wednesday evening as the belated passenger train, No. 23, was entering Fernley, a station between Hazen and Reno, Conductor Sidney H. Graves, of the Southern Pacific railroad succumbed suddenly with heart failure and acute indigestion.

Graves was in charge of the belated train from Mina on Wednesday morning. The train left Tonopah on time, but after passing Coaldale the engine broke down and caused a delay of four hours. Before leaving Mina the deceased partook of a hearty meal and wats shortly thereafter taken sick.

When he appeared at his customary duties taking up tickets he was suffering considerable illness and a pallor had spread ever his face. To passengers should the train he stated that he was suffering terribly from indignation and was hardly able to attend to his duties.

After the train passed Hazen, Graves entered the smoking car and nearted the first seat from the As the train neared Fernthe conductor gave a sharp gasp, partly straightened up and then fell backwards into the arms of a passenger, and in a few seconds had expired. The train was held at Fernley while Dr. S. L. Goslin was summoned, but the services of the physician were not needed, as Graves had passed beyond the period where medical aid would prove beneficial

On arrival at Sparks the body was taken to Reno by a delegation of railroad men, who loved him in life and reverenced him in death.

The deecased made his bome in Sparks, where his wife and five children reside.

Sidney Graves had been in the employ of the Southern Pacific for the past 22 years and was very popular with his employers and the traveling public and will be missed by all on his regular run.
